

Ira L. Hobbs

Advisory Fellow, Global Public Sector Internet Business Solutions Group

Ira L. Hobbs is an advisory fellow to the Cisco Internet Business Solutions Group Global Public Sector Practice, supporting industry and government organizations in their efforts to improve the performance of citizen services

Hobbs is also the principal officer of Hobbs & Hobbs, LLC, an information management consulting practice that focuses on the federal market. He performs a wide range of tasks associated with the growth and development of the federal workforce from a management and leadership perspective.

Prior to Hobbs & Hobbs, he was deputy assistant secretary and CIO of the U.S. Department of the Treasury for three years, serving as the principal advisor on IT issues to the secretary of the treasury and deputy secretary. He also was responsible for acquiring and managing information resources and providing broad leadership in planning, budgeting, acquiring, and managing the Treasury's IT resources, including formulating policies and programs to maximize the value of IT investments.

Prior to joining the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Hobbs served seven years as deputy CIO of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, co-managing a staff of 260 information resource management professionals and $1.7 billion dollars in physical assets.

Hobbs is a member of Leadership Greater Washington, Class of 1996; the American Society for Public Administration; and the Conference of Minority Public Administrators. He has a bachelor's degree in political science from Florida A&M University and a master's in public administration from Florida State University.

Cisco Internet Business Solutions Group (IBSG)