Open Source

For Cisco Provider Connectivity Assurance (formerly Accedian Skylight), you may consult the applicable licenses of open source components used in the product by visiting Cisco's Open Source site: <https://www.cisco.com/go/opensource>.

For other products, and to the extent required under an applicable open source license, for third party technology that you receive from Accedian in binary form and for which the source code was not provided to you with the binary file, you can receive a copy of the source code on physical media by submitting a written request to opensource@accedian.com including your name, address, telephone, the name of the component or binary file(s) for which you are requesting the source code, the product name and version, operating system, and the place of purchase.

We may charge you a fee to cover the cost of physical media and processing. Your request must be sent within three (3) years of the date you received the product from Accedian that is the subject of your request, or in the case of code licensed under the AGPL/ GPL / LGPL v3 for as long as Accedian offers spare parts or customer support for the product model including the component(s) or binary file(s) that are subject to your request.

HDS Addendum

If you are a HDS Customer and purchased under the Accedian terms and conditions, the following HDS addendum applies.
